

LEARNING OUTSIDE THE BOX Geography Scavenger Hunt

Learning Outside the Box (www.learningoutsidethebox.net) specializes in content-rich classes in geography (5th-12th), philosophy (9th-12th), world affairs (9th-12th), finance/investment (8th-12th), academic writing (10th-12th), and literature (8th-12th), in person and online.

A:	Albany is the capital of which U.S. state?
B:	Find a country in South America that does not border Brazil .
C:	What is the dominant religion of Chad ?
D:	Dubai is the most populous city in which country?
E:	Which Asian country is crossed by the equator ?
F:	What is the capital of Finland ?
G:	What is the official language of Guyana ?
H:	What is the major industry of Houston ?
I:	Which island is the largest in the Caribbean?
J:	What is the tallest mountain in Japan ?
K:	Which national park is in Kentucky ?
L:	In which nation are lochs common?
M:	Find any state that borders Maryland .
N:	Nanjing is a megacity in which country?
O:	In which city does the Ohio River start?
P:	Which U.S. state surrounds Puget Sound ?
Q:	What is the dominant language spoken in Qatar ?
R:	Which river forms the border between Iowa and Nebraska?
S:	Which is the most populous city in Silicon Valley ?
T:	Tagalog is a major language in which country?
U:	What is the dominant religion in Uttar Pradesh ?
V:	Which U.S. state has the most active volcanoes ?
W:	What is the largest city in Wisconsin ?
X:	Xeriscaping is common in which kind of biome?
Y:	Yosemite 's Mariposa Grove is famous for what kind of tree?
Z:	Which country used to be known as Zaire ?	